ALL SORTS.

Sunday dinner at the Ormsby today for 25 cents.

The speed of the wind yesterday was nearly 40 miles an hour.

Yesterday's high wind pretty thoroughly dried the streets.

Mrs. James Kerr, of Reno, is visiting her mother in this city.

Miss Bella Haas, of Virginia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cohn in Carson.

There will be no APPEAL issued from this office tomorrow; not if we know it.

The minstrels had to stay in Carson all day yesterday on account of the wreck.

Ethel Brandon in the great military drama the Countersign, on February 22 and 23.

Jack Furlong and Tim Dempsey won the 45 game last night and captured the turkey at Dempsey's.

Jim Meder had the Opera House very comfortably warmed on the night of the Minstrel performance.

Nine out of every ten Judges on the Bench are bald. Why?—Boston Post.

Got no hair.—Fresno Republican.

Mrs. Jane Shattuck, who shot and killed Harry Poole, was Friday afternoon held to answer on a charge of murder without bail by Judge Conlan.

A man remarked yesterday that the boy who so bravely saved the lives of six children at Brunswick last Sunday was the "whitest Crow he ever saw."

His Mind Wrecked.

San Francisco, Jan. 20.—Col. Wm. H. Chamberlin, the bright and active young politician, is a mere wreck of his former self. His mind is gone and his friends have at last placed him in a private insane asylum.

Colonel Chamberlin was once President of the Dirigo Club, and his prominence in the Blaine campaign was the means of his appointment to the position of Bank Commissioner.

The Reese River Tragedy.

It is expected that the trial of the Vaughan brothers and Nick Rast for the shooting and killing of John and William Lister in Boone Canyon, on the 28th of December, 1893, will be one of the most interesting Court proceedings that has taken place in Lander since the trial and execution of Rufus B. Anderson, in Austin in 1868. The State will be represented by W. D. Jones, and the defendants by Dennis and Mac-Millian.

What Was Lost.

First Man.—Say, ain't that train a long while gettin' here?
Second Dito.—Maybe they've lost a wheel.
Third.—Or a driver.
Fourth.—I know what they've lost.
First. { In chorus } —What?

Fourth.—Time.

OFF THE TRACK.

A Hard Bank of Snow Causes the Express to Leave the Rails.

Yesterday morning when the passenger train was a short distance from Franktown on its way to Carson, the engine encountered a huge drift of snow which had formed during the night, and the locomotive, and the two forward cars left the rails. The drift had been rained on and had frozen solid.

Some damage was done and the wrecking train was immediately telegraphed for. Two engines and the V. & T. wrecker left Carson as soon as possible with a crew of men.

An APPEAL special reporter went out on the wrecking train, and says that the engine was found at right angles with the track, and about one hundred feet of rails were torn up. The engine went on one side of the track and the baggage car on the other. Only one truck of the second car was off the track. The track was cleared and an impromptu track was laid from under the baggage car.

The only damage to the engine was the mashing of the cow catcher, the forward truck, and the rear of the tender. The engine was about four feet in the mud.

The western mail reached Carson at 7 o'clock last night. No mail reached here from Virginia, but a special was sent as far as Mound House to bring down the C & C mail and passengers.

The express car could not be put in running order yesterday, so a new car was sent over to the scene of the wreck to handle the express.

District Court.

The Court met yesterday at 10 a. m. Judge Rising presiding.

The Chinaman Ah Sing, indicted for the murder of Ah Sue, was arraigned and pled not guilty. The Court appointed Wm. Woodburn his attorney and the trial was set for February 1st.

In the case of T. J. Edwards and John M. Wright, executors of the estate of S. C. Wright, deceased, vs. the Carson Water Company, a jury was secured and the trial proceeded. Wm. Woodburn and J. R. Judge conducting the case for plaintiff, while Torreyson & Summerfield appeared for the Water Company.

The note of $2,000 alleged to be due the Wright estate was not admitted as evidence, but the jury returned a verdict allowing the estate's counter claim of $620. The estate was sued for $400 and some odd dollars.

In the case of Brown Bros. vs. Gardner, et al., Judge Rising rendered a decision denying motion for a new trial. The case will be appealed to the Supreme Court.

The Crow Fund.

The fund got a big boost yesterday. R. H. Logan turned in $10 from the Washoe Club, of Virginia, and there were several half dollars added to the list.

It has been decided to keep the fund open a few days longer and perhaps 'till next Saturday night.

The fund now stands as follows: Previously acknowledged.....$18 00
Washoe Club..... 10 00
N Wylie..... 50
Forrest Hanford..... 50

COAST NEWS.

A lighted cigarette thrown down by a boy on the stage of the Grand Army Hall at Spokane set the scenery afire.

Much excitement exists at Pasadena over the disappearance of Clarence Stewart, a prominent business man of that city. Indications point to foul play.

The two men, Reynolds and Lopes, arrested and charged with the "stand-up" and robbery, have been discharged from custody, they proving an alibi.

There is every indication that the settlers on railroad grant lands in Southern California will be defended in the contest for their property by the United States Government.

The recent storm was particularly severe about Victoria, B. C. Such weather had not been experienced in ten years. The San Pedro wreck was swept and it was expected to split in two before the storm ended.

J. B. Quintero, a young blacksmith at Santa Barbara, has employed counsel to undertake his claim against the estate of A. P. Moore, the wealthy cattle and real estate owner. Quintero claims to be the son of Moore.

The Southern Pacific is putting electric search lights on its engines up north, and the two Hogg engines running into Ashland, Or., are to be equipped soon. These search lights are very powerful and long distance peepers into the darkness, being able to throw a light for miles.

Footpads at Pasadena attacked J. D. Yocum, a prominent citizen, took from him a pruning-knife with which he was defending himself, and cut the right side of his throat. His wound, though dangerous, with care will not prove fatal. His money was taken from his pockets. A rumor that he attempted suicide is scoffed at by his friends.

A farmer living near Harrington, Lincoln county, Wash., helped steal his own pig the other night. He was awakened from his sleep and asked by two men to assist them in leading a hog which had tumbled out of a crate in their wagon. He willingly gave a helping hand, and returned to quiet slumbers. The next morning he went out to feed his porker, but there was no porker to feed.

Fall and Winter Clothing.

John Henderson, representing Wanamaker & Brown, of Philadelphia, Pa., will be at the Arlington House, January 21, 22, and 23 with a full line of samples of gent's and boy's clothing and furnishing goods.

The public are respectfully requested to call and examine goods and prices and be convinced that they can save fifty (50) per cent of the prices usually paid.

Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. j21

Served Him Right.

Los Angeles, January 10.—Mrs. C. Talari today refused to play an accordion on the street to earn money for her husband and when he abused her for refusal she shot him through the right arm.

The Midwinter Appeal.

There has been a rush of people at this office for copies of the Midwinter Appeal and Journal of 1893. Copies of the paper can be secured of Fox or Cagwin & Noteware, at 5 cents per copy.
